CAIN ANDERSON IS CONVICTED

SILVER GRANTED ANOTHER REPRIEVE

EXECUTION YOUNG BANDIT POSTPONED UNTIL OCTOBER 26

GOVERNOR REFUSES INTERFERE FURTHER IN CASES OF TWO NEGROES.

AUSTIN, Sept. 27. (AP)—Robert Silver was granted a third reprieve today by Governor Dan Moody, effective until October 26. The governor said his action was intended to permit action by the court of criminal appeals on a second motion for a rehearing now pending in that court.

Governor Moody declined to interfere further in the cases of Tom Ross and O. T. Alexander, negroes. They are scheduled to die tonight.

Reasons For Action.

Governor Moody explained his action on the Silver case as follows;

"This morning my attention was called to the fact that the opinion of the court of criminal appeals on motion for rehearing in the Silver case was handed down on the 28th day of June and the court adjourned on June 30th. It appears that a second motion for rehearing was filed in this case on July 9th, and that this motion has not been presented to the court or acted upon by it, due to the fact that under the law the court is in vacation from June thirtieth until October.

"I have read all of the statement of facts, petitions, etc., in this case. The record in the case is the account of a deliberately planned and cruelly executed crime. It shows that for two weeks the defendants were making plans to commit the robbery which resulted in the death of young Wilson. In preparation for the commission of the crime the defendant ate breakfast for about two weeks at a restaurant near the place where the deceased was employed, in order that they might watch his route in carrying the money from his place of employment to the bank. There is evidence that the defendants even followed the deceased to the bank to thoroughly learn his habits in handling the money of his employer between his place of business and the bank.

Plans Well Laid.

"Among other things done in preparation of the crime was to steal an automobile and test it out as to speed, etc. The record shows the defendants plan contemplated the commission of the robbery in Fort Worth and an immediate departure for Dallas. In planning the crime they spent considerable time picking a circuitous route to Dallas which could be easily traveled without likelihood of detection. They selected Monday for the robbery, believing that the deceased would have more money to carry to the bank on that day than on any other day of the week. The last act in preparation of the robbery was to produce fifty rounds of ammunition suited for use in their pistols. The murder was contemplated and within the purview of their plans is evidenced by the fact that the ammunition was procured and that each of the defendants was armed with a pistol.

Victim Small Man.

"It appears that Young Wilson was of small stature, weighing just a little more than a hundred pounds and could have been easily overpowered. When they undertook to take the money of his employer away from him, he was faithful to the trust imposed in him by his employer and he was shot down.

"The court of criminal appeals has at times acted favorably upon second motions for rehearing and I believe the defendant is entitled to have his motion, or any other question of law in the case, passed upon by the court. The court does not meet again until October

John Coolidge in Auto Crash Early Thursday; Unhurt

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Sept. 27.—(AP)—Two persons were injured today in a collision of automobiles, one driven by Governor John H. Trumbull's personal chauffeur, and having John Coolidge, son of President Coolidge, as a passenger, and the other driven by Wilfred Veno, who had his mother, Mrs. Mary Veno, with him. The Venos are in the hospital, Mrs. Veno with lacerations about the face and bruises on the body and her son with a possible skull fracture.

Coolidge and the chauffeur were unhurt.

Immediately after the collision a police officer appeared at the scene, and John Coolidge gave him his name and his address as Northampton, Mass. The chauffeur was then permitted to drive him to the railroad office building, where he is employed.

Mrs. Veno, who is about 58, and her son, who is 30, were taken to the New Haven hospital. It was stated later the woman was not seriously hurt, buh her son for the present was entered on the list of those in dangerous condition.

Police are investigating.

THREE-FAMILY FEUD ENDS IN TRAGEDY WITH WOMAN AS FIRST VICTIM IN IDAHO

TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Sept. 27.—(AP)—A three-family feud over ownership of a road—a feud born so many years ago that the original cause has been almost forgotten—came to a swift tragic climax yesterday when W. O. Tharp, a 45-year-old dairyman, went over to Charley Bowen's house, gunning.

Mrs. Bowen was shot and killed in her front yard. The first bullet broke her leg and she crawled toward the slight protection that a fence offered. It was there that two more bullets were fired into her body, killing her.

The woman's husband ran to her aid and was wounded as he grappled with Tharp, the police report said. During the hand-to-hand fight between the two men, Waleta, a 14-year-old daughter of the Bowens, picked up the weapon with which her mother had been shot down, and struck Tharp over the head.

The blow did not incapacitate Tharp, police were told, and with Bowen helpless because of his wound, Tharp ran to his automobile and drove down the road toward the home of Harry Rose, head of the third family involved in the feud.

A the Rose home it was again the woman of the house who met Tharp. Mrs. Rose, however, was armed and poured the charge of a shotgun into the Tharp car. Tharp was uninjured, and shortly afterward was arrested.

The immediate cause of the shooting, police investigation showed, revolved about the children of the Rose and Bowen families. Waleta Bowen and the six Rose children had been attacked, according to the stories told officers, by Tharp and his two sons, 12 and 14 years old.

The Bowen and Rose children fled toward the Bowen home, the Tharps pursuing. Tharp's automobile drew up in fron of the house just as Mrs. Bowen, who was 35 years old, came running out to see what was the matter.

It was when she raised her hand, in a gesture intended to restrain Tharp from following the children, that she was shot down, police said.

The Bowens and Rose families were reported to have sided aginst Tharp years ago in the controversy over the private road, which led into their three small farms at the edge of Twin Falls.

When the farmer attempted to light his pipe yesterday the match broke and dropped into a kerosene can, which exploded and ignited the cat. The frantic feline scampered for the barn, and was consumed along with the building and hay herein.

POLITICAL DOPESTERS GIVE SMITH EDGE IN WEST WITH SUPPORT LAFOLLETTE MEN

By BYRON PRICE
(Associated Press Staff Writer.)

SALT LAKE CITY, Utah, Sept. 27.—(AP)—An interesting mathematical theory lies behind the Democratic bid for Western electoral votes in 1928. It is that Governor Smith, once his views have been presented fully to the Western electorate, will win the bulk of the support that went to Senator LaFollette in the three-cornered campaign of 1924. Adding this to the vote given John W. Davis, the dopesters arrive at a Smith victory in a number of states which Coolidge carried without having a clear majority over the combined vote of his opponents.

This, it should be understood, is purely a Democratic thesis, to which the Hoover managers do not subscribe. The Republicans deny that the LaFollette vote, or even the Western "Progressive" vote, can be treated mathematically as a unit, capable of transfer enmasse from one allegiance to another. Republican dopesters say, furthermore, that most of those who voted for LaFollette were Republicans and that they naturally will return to the paternal hearthstone now that the LaFollette party is no more.

The hopes of the Democrats in this matter have their beginning in the well established Western urge toward "progressive policies,"—a term often used but variously defined. Roosevelt, always a Western idol, selected the name "Progressive" for his third party in 1912, twelve years before the same label was chosen for the third party venture of LaFollette. It is the belief of Democratic managers that before the campaign is over, Gov. Smith will have given convincing proof of his devotion to "progressive" principles.

For whatever it may be worth, here is the way the Democrats apply their reasoning to the Rocky Mountain group of states as a whole:

The group includes eight states, all classified ordinarily as Republican states and all claimed today by the Republicans—Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Colorado, Utah, Nevada, Arizona and New Mexico. In six of these states, the Republicans have been in the minority in three out of the last four presidential elections. The one Republican sweep was the Harding landslide of 1920. All eight were carried by Wilson in 1916. Coolidge carried them all in 1924, but only in Wyoming and Colorado did his vote exceed the combined "anti-Republican" vote cast for Davis and LaFollette.

These eight states together have but 30 electoral votes, just two-thirds the number accorded New York state alone. When Governor Smith was nominated at Houston many politicians believed he would stake everything on a combination of East and South, and would leave this Western corridor to take care of itself. Instead, the Democratic nominee already has delivered two campaign speeches in this section, and the Democratic organization is disputing all states with considerable vigor.

The regional managers of the Democratic Western campaign at headquarters here expect these two addresses to greatly aid in swinging the LaFollette vote into the Smith column in November.

WOMAN SHOOTS MAN ATTEMPTING ENTER HOME, SHE SAYS

DALLAS, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Frank Bryant, 28, of Irving, Texas, was in a local hospital today recovering from bullet wounds in the shoulder and forearm, received last night in a shooting affray here.

Miss Emma Wooten, at whose home Bryant was wounded, made a statement to Assistant District Attorney Gossett Greer, saying she fired five shots from a pistol to protect her residence from forcible entry. She was at liberty today on her personal recognizance.

A pedestrian, Jim Bell, 35, also was wounded by a stray bullet, which struck him in the knee while he stood on the sidewalk outside the house.

American Reply to British and French Agreement is Ready

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(AP)—The American reply to the French and English naval agreement which has been received by the embassy in London for delivery to the British foreign minister, probably will be made public Saturday morning.

There are no indications the note will present any new ideas on the naval disarmament question. It is generally held the American position will be confined to a discussion of this country's naval policy, repeatedly outlined by officials of the Washington government, principally by President Coolidge.

FARM RELIEF, TARIFF AND ALLIED SUBJECTS ON SMITH'S AGENDA

DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE NOW HEADED BACK EAST STOPS FOR SPEECH ST. PAUL

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
(Associated Press Staff Writer.)

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., Sept. 27.—(AP)—The Twin Cities of Minnesota opened their doors to Governor Smith today, Minneapolis roaring out the first welcome when the Democratic presidential nominee's special train pulled into the station at 10:25 a. m.

St. Paul, where the governor will make his fifth speech of the campaign tonight, was to get its first glimpse of the New Yorker later in the day, having arranged a reception and parade and decorated its streets for the occasion.

GOVERNOR SMITH'S TRAIN EN ROUTE TO MINNEAPOLIS, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Bearing encouraging reports on the presidential on the presidential outlook in North Dakota, Governor Smith today entered the grain belt of Minnesota to make the fifth speech of his western tour at St. Paul tonight—a direct appeal for suppor from the mass of voters of the agricultural northwest.

Farm relief, the tariff and other allied subjects are expected to form the hub of the address. By working late last night as his train traversed the farming sections of North Dakota and Western Minnesota, the democratic presidential nominee completed a draft of his speech and was free today to engage in a round of activity preliminary to its delivery tonight in the St. Paul auditorium.

A parade and reception in Minneapolis and a press conference were on the program for tl nominee, while a reception and luncheon had been arranged for Mrs. Smith and other women members of the party.

La Folletteites Back Smith.

Many reports have reached Governor Smith during his swing through this region that a majority of the 1924 La Follette followers are lining up behind him, and his managers are frank to say this part of the electorate is one of the chief democratic goals in November.

Minneasota's twelve electoral votes went to Coolidge by a clear majority four years ago, La Follette running second. Looking back, however, lieutenants of the New York executive point to the fact that Wilson lost to Hughes in 1916 by less than 500 votes.

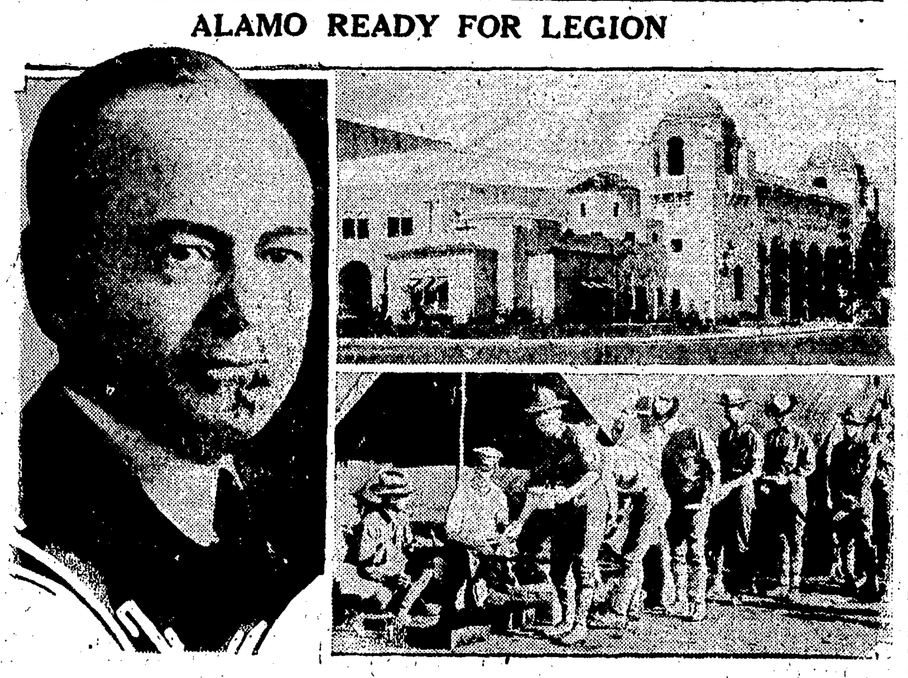

Crowds at half a dozen cities in North Dakota turned out to cheer the nominee and shake his hand, as they appeared at Mandan, Bismarck, where the nominee detrained to visit the state capitol for a call on Gov. Walter Maddock and the executive mansion to pay his respects to the widow of the late Governor Sorlie; Jamestown, Valley City and Fargo.

North Dakota Reception.

Large delegations of party leaders boarded the special in North Dakota, principally at Mandan, across the Missouri from the capital, and at Bismark. Here Governor Maddock entrained and rode as far as Jamestown, where in a speech to a crowd from the rear platform, he introduced Governor Smith as the "man who will sign the McNary-Haugen bill."

Governor Maddock, who was a delegate to the republican national convention, submitted to a long press interview in which he explained his political status and declared that in view of the farmers receiving "better treatment at Houston," and as a result of Governor Smith's recent interpretation of the platform adopted there, eighty per cent of the farmers of North Dakota now were for him.

DRY AGENTS HELD AFTER WOUNDING OF WOMAN IN AUTO

DRIVER OF CAR BELIEVED OFFICERS WERE HIGHWAYMEN, HE SAID

LORAIN, Ohio, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Miss Betty Heywood, 22, of Elyria, is in a serious condition in a hospital here from a bullet wound alleged to have been received when prohibition officers working under direction of Mayor J. C. Standen, fired on a car in which she was riding today at Lorain. The officers alleged to have done the shooting are in jail.

The officers, Frank Klady, Walter Knitter and Louis Cicco, all of Lorain, are held on technical charges of investigation.

The shooting occurred at a bridge where the dry agents were stationed are alleged to have fired on the car in which Miss Heywood was a passenger when it did not stop at a command.

Charles Edwards of Elyria, driver of the car in which his wife, daughter and Miss Heywood were passengers, said he believed the agents were holdup men and increased the car's speed when they ordered him to stop. As the car sped past, one shot was fired, striking Miss Heywood in the neck.

Edwards drove to a hospital where he left Miss Heywood and then reported the matter to the police.

No liquor was found in the car. Klady is a deputy sheriff. Knitter and Cicco are city police. All three are working as dry enforcement squad under Mayor Standen.

PESSIMISTIC REPORTS FROM NORTHWESTERN WHEAT BELT FAIL TO WORRY REPUBLICANS

By JAMES L. WEST, Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27.—(AP)—party had always been the party voters from the Virginias who called today at his headquarters, Herbert Hoover said the republican party had always bee nthe party of action for the benefit of the country at large "without regard to sectional or to special interest."

The republican presidential nominee declared also his party was over young with each new generation and because in every expanding cycle of the country's advance it had caught the step of progress it had marched in the lead in bringing about those things which were for the greatest good to the greatest number.

BY JAMES L. WEST
Associated Press Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 27. —(AP)—While some pessimistic reports have come to Herbert Hoover about the present situation in the northwestern wheat belt, where the McNary-Haugen plan of farm relief has had strong support, there were no indications today of deep concern at the general headquarters of the republican presidential candiate.

The break in wheat prices came before Hoover visited Cedar Rapids a month ago and was one of the subject matters of the conferences which he had there with leaders from throughout the wheat belt. He left those conferences fairly well satisfied with the outlook for him in that section and the bulk of reports received since that time has not served to lessen his confidence.

At the start of the campaign the northwestern section was one that caused some republican leaders anxiety, but since that time militant organizations have gone into operation and a concerted campaign has been waged. Hoover already has dealt with the farm relief problem in two speeches and it is likely he will have more to say on that subject.

The route he is to follow on his journey homeward the last of next month has yet to be chosen. He has been urged to go into the northwestern territory as well as to visit a number of cities outside of the wheat belt. He will make several addresses on the way and it well may be that he will wind up the campaign with a further discussion of what has been one of the big issues.

For the present the republican nominee is giving his attention largely to the East and the South, where he will make at least three major speeches and a number of others during the next month. He now has completed the fourth important paper of his campaign—the text of the address he is to deliver in Dixie next month.

While the itinerary for the Southern trip has been approved and made public, the republican standard bearer still is being urged to enlarge it so as to take in some of the cities in the valley of Virginia through which his special train will pass going to and returning from Elizabethton, Tenn. These include Charlottesville, Lynchburg and Roanoke, through which, under present plans, the special would pass in the early morning hours.

If the weather is favorable and he has a hunch he will attempt the flight; if not, he will pack up the plane and return to England.

Commander H. C. MacDonald, 28 years old, whose chief aeronautic achievement was a flight from London to Bagdad, although he has only 80 hours of flying to his credit, thinks he will be able to demonstrate that a British Moth plane with a sole fiver is able to stand up against Atlantic weather.

WEALTHY HARRISON COUNTY FARMER IS GIVEN EIGHT YEARS

CONVICTED OF VIOLATING TEXAS ANTI-MASK LAW IN FLOGGING CASE

CANTON, Sept. 27. (AP)—Cain Anderson, wealthy Harrison county farmer, was found guilty of violating the Texas anti-mask law in a verdict returned by a jury today and was sentenced to eight years in the state penitentiary.

The defendant, who was alleged to have participated in the flogging of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Richardson in 1927, was previously tried twice, but the juries were unable to arrive at a decision in the case.

Arguments were completed yesterday after the defense had introduced DeWitt Osborne, a surprise witness, in the case. Osborne, who was jointly indicted with Anderson, and given a one-year term after pleading guilty, asserted the farmer was not present when the whipping took place.

First Trial of Kind.

Anderson's original trial was the first involving the anti-mask law enacted by the Texas legislature after much agitation over the Ku Klux Klan and attracted much attention throughout the country. It brought an array of counsel for both defense and prosecution including a representative of the state attorney general's office.

The trials developed that Mr. and Mrs. Richardson were taken from their cabin home on Anderson's large east Texas farm in the dead of the night by four masked men, and despite the fact that Mrs. Richardson told her abductors she was ill, were hurried to a nearby wood and severely beaten with a rope. A daughter and son of the Richardson's, who were in the house at the time, were struck by the raiders.

Ordered to Leave.

The Richardsons had been employed on the Anderson plantation to work in the fields, and at the trials both testified that they had been accused of not working diligently and had been ordered to leave the country.

Anderson's defense consisted in the main in an alibi which sought to establish that he was at home in bed at the time the Richardsons were flogged. His wife and daughter testified to this effect. Other witnesses testified that Anderson was seen at his home about the time of the flogging.

SENATOR CURTIS IS CARRYING CAMPAIGN ALL PARTS OKLAHOMA

The state tour, beginning almost at sunup today with an appearance at Miami where the Indians arranged a meeting, is a finish to a campaign of the west begun two weeks ago by the veteran campaigner.

After going to Miami from Afton early today he moves on to Tulsa for an afternoon meeting and then motors to Okmulgee for a speech tonight.

Richard Loeb Has Lost His Soft Job In Joliet Prison

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Richard Loeb who with Nathan Leopold, Jr., is serving a life sentence for the "thrill murder" of Bobbie Franks, has lost his "soft job" at the Joliet penitentiary.

Loeb has been serving as secretary to an assistant warden. Today he fond himself assigned to manual labor in the yards. The order also removed him from his private cell and placed him in the cell block with other prisoners.

Early this week Hinton C. Clabaugh, chairman of the state pardons board, said that through an error in commitment papers both Loeb and Leopold woud be elegible to apply for a parole within six years. Clabaugh alluded to Loeb and Leopold as the "pampered pets" of Joliet, and said they were building up "fine records" for presentation to the pardons board when the time came.

DEMOCRATIC FUNDS.

An active and aggressive campaign is now being waged in Corsicana and Navarro county to raise funds to be used by the National Democratic Finance Committee in financing the educational program now under way throughout the country in presenting the Smith-Robinson ticket to the voters of the United States.

Mr. A. A. Allison, prominent Navarro county Democrat, well known in political circles throughout the state, has been named chairman of the county finance committee and is personally directing this activity. Mr. Allison will name chairmen in every precinct in the county and every Democrat will be given the opportunity of making a subscription.

Mr. Allison is an energetic and tireless worker and when he takes hold of a proposition he has that happy knack of making a success of it. It has been stated by Mr. Allison that he wants Navarro county to be the first county in the United States to turn over $1,000 to the National committee. We will make the prediction that Mr. Allison will have his wish.

Every voter in Navarro county, financially able, should make a donation to the fund, regardless of how large or how small. This is not a rich man's campaign. It is a campaign of the people. The man donating one dollar is doing just as much as the man giving many times that amount. In many instances the man giving ten dollars is making a greater sacrifice than the man giving ten thousand dollars.

Navarro county will respond liberally to the Democratic compaign fund. Navarro county is Democratic and the voters by their actions in the November election will give the Democratic National ticket one of the largest majorities in the history of the county.

A FIGHTING CANDIDATE

A certain brown derby, far-famed from many a victorious campaign, has come from its peg in the executive mansion in Albany and has been dusted for a lot of rough autumn wear and for the making of more political history.

This particular brown derby has been on view extensively in New York state during the successive Smith fights for the governorship and during appeals to the people in favor of certain policies. But it has rarely been seen beyond the borders of the Democratic nominee's own state, and the same is true with regard to the man who wears it.

Not in this generation has so tried and successful a campaigner entered the national lists. He is a seasoned political speaker who captures his audiences at the opening of his address and keeps it to the end. And than he there is no better strategist in present-day politics. In all his political battles, including the present one, he has been surrounded by managers of great astuteness, but always he has been chief strategist.

Characteristic of Governor Smith as public executive, political strategist and political campaginer is the statement he was inspired to make by the campaign promise of a Republican opponent to get along with the legislature like a cooing dove:

"The people of the state of New York want clear-headed, strong-minded, fighting men at the head of the state government and not cooing doves. Let the doves roost in the eves of the Capitol—not in the executive chamber."

A fighter is needed in Washington. The American people cannot entrust their welfare to a man with whom peace at all times, at any cost, is a religion. Governor Smith will take up the cudgel for the people when Calvin Coolidge leaves the white house in March.

IT PAID TO ADVERTISE DIXIE.

The Manufacturers' Record has undertaken publication of a series of articles on economic conditions in the South. The governors of several states already have responded, and the facts set forth are plainly indicative of progress in both industry and agriculture.

Governor Sampson, of Kentucky, tells how his state is about to launch a $30,000,000 bridge construction program and how industrial to the Blue Grass Common-$5,000,000 have been added plants valued at more than wealth within the past few weeks.

Governor Hardman, of Georgia, discussed the remarkable strides being made throughout his state in connection with diversified agriculture and points to a rapid influx of new industry and new capital.

Governor Byrd, of Virginia, says that the industrial output for his commonwealth will be $900,000,000 for 1928 as contrasted with $667,000,000 for 1926. Construction is active, he adds.

"The most striking thing in the stories to'd by the three governors," remarks the Ashville Citizen, "is the part played by advertising in this rapid enrichment of their states."

Evidently, Dixieland has awakened to the benefits which may be obtained from legitimate publicity. The favorable results will be applauded throughout the entire nation, for sectional prosperity has a way of spreading to the country at large.

CHEMISTS IN INDUSTRY.

By presenting $250,000 to the American Chemical Society for use in disseminating news of past and future discoveries, American industry acknowledges its debt to the test tube. The money represents contributions from more than one hundred firms which have profited through application of new principles disclosed by chemistry. How helpful its researches have been was recently explained by a prominent official of the United States Steel Corporation, who declared that without the aid of chemistry "there would be no steel industry today."

Steel, the speaker might have added, is only one of many products whose genesis was in the laboratory. Building compositions and metal alloys, rubber and its substitutes, new materials used in the home, the factory and in business; in the development of such modern appliances as the telephone, the radio and the camera—all trace back to experiments in chemistry or physics. A great proportion of the research now conducted by every great industry which realizes that progress alone means life is in the hands of the chemist. Widespread publication of his discoveries will aid not only the particular industry they affect but the economic development of the nation and the world.

DUAL ATTRACTION.

Fickle fandom at this time of the year is not content with only one charmer. As the baseball season enters the "last of the ninth" the public starts dividing its thoughts between the diamond and the gridiron. Although baseball interest is unusually high this year because of the major races, football is attracting its usual quota of attention.

When World Series and football games fall on the same Saturday afternoon, bleachers and stadiums alike are jammed and the absent fan keeps one eye on the baseball board and the other on the football board.

The hold which football has taken on the American public is nothing short of phenomenal. Only a small percentage of the admissions are paid by undergraduates and alumni of the battling institutions. Of the hundreds of thousands who attend the Saturday afternoon gridiron contests many are interested only slightly in the fortunes of the contestants. It is the game, the show of rivalry and spirit apparently that draw and hold them.

The greatest foe to amateurism in collegiate and scholastic football is the easy money collected at the gates. It builds the costly stadium, and once it is built the high operating costs necessitates a winning team that will draw the crowds.

With another season at hand, there will be more talk of taking commercialism out of amateur football. It is a safe bet it will get nowhere. Perhaps that is because the average fan demands good teams at any cost.

Speaking of extremes, there is the woman who thinks she knows what a man is before she marries him and knows that she knows after marriage.

Many men as well as women with political sagacity equal to the Willebrandt woman's have preceded her into oblivion.

LONDON, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Friends of George Kirby, Southampton professional golfer, claim for him the record of the longest hole in one. He sank his drive on the 340-yard ninth hole at Stoneham.

IN MEMORY OF LITTLE WILMAR JOE.

The Death Angel visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Calloway on Sept. 17, and took from them their darling little girl. All was done that loving hands could do, but God knew best and called her home to fill a vacant place, so dear ones don't weep for, she has gone to rest as we all know. Now all we have to do is to live a true, sweet life to meet her in the sky.

We have lost our darling baby,
She has bid us all adieu,
She has gone to live in heaven
And her form is lost to view.

Oh, that dear one, how we miss her.
Oh, how hard to give her up,
But an angel came down for her,
And removed her from our flock.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord
When love has bound the heart,
'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words,
We must forever part.

Dearest loved one we must lay thee
In the peaceful grave's embrace
But thy memory will be cherished
'Till we see thy heavenly face.

Dear little hands I miss them so
All through the day, wherever I go,
All through the night how lonely it seems
For those little hands that wake me out of my dreams.
I miss them all through the weary hours,
I miss them as others do sunshine and flowers,
Daytime or nightime, wherever I go,
Dear little hands, I miss them so.

Earth has lost its look of gladness,
Heaven seems to us more bright
Since the spirit of our dear baby
Took her happy homeward flight.
And we long to cross that river
There to see and know and love her,
With the Savior evermore.

Farewell dear, but not forever
There will be a glorious dawn,
We shall meet to part no never
On the resurrection morn.

Tho thy darling form lies sleeping,
In the cold and silent tomb,
Thou shall have a glorious waking
When the blessed Lord doth come.

BAND CONCERT TO BE GIVEN FRIDAY NIGHT ZION'S REST

A band concert will be the main feature of the Open House at Zion's Rest Friday evening. The State Home school band and their director, Joel Trimble, will render a varied program. Due to the popularity of this band and its director a large crowd is anticipated and there will be ample parking space.

Roy Christian, secretary of the Corsicana chamber of commerce, will be the speaker of the evening. Mr. Christian is always pleasing—saying something worth while with a humorous touch which appeals to all.

Through the courtesy of the chamber of commerce, leaflets of words for the songs for the singsong will be ready for Friday night. This fills a real need and a real community singing is expected to be a part of Friday evening's program.

Stunts will also be in order. The public is cordially invited. No admission, but sandwiches, drinks and other things will be sold throughout the evening.

Visit this community affair and see what they are doing.

GIL TO SUCCEED CALLES AT HELM REPUBLIC MEXICO

FORMER INTERIOR SECRETARY IS PROHIBITIONIST; GOOD LAWYER

MEXICO CITY, Sept. 26. (AP)—Committed to continuing the policies of President Calles, including friendly relations wth the United States, Emilio Portes Gil, secretary of interior, will become provisional president of Mexico on December 1. His election by deputies and senators meeting in a joint session last night was unanimous.

Portes Gil, a supporter of prohibition, is one of the few civilians who has ever been chief executive of Mexico. He has virtually been assured the support of the big military figures who met with President Calles after he had renounced the presidency and pledged their support to the choice of congress.

Portes Gil will serve from the time Calles' term expires until February 5, 1930, when a president chosen in a general election on the third Sunday of November, 1929, will succeed him.

Carries Obregon Program.

The assassination of General Alvaro Obregon, elected as successor to Calles, will not mark the end of the program which he mapped out in his campaign, Portes Gil having announced after his election that he would carry this out.

"My policy will be inspired by the highest principles of social equity and justice," Portes Gil said in a statement after his election.

"My task will be to continue the policies developed by President Calles in all branches of public administration and also to producc the fulfillment of the social program outlined by the late General Obregon."

Portes Gil has had a distinguished career as a lawyer and administrator. He is considered to be unusually well versed in the law and the nearest he ever came to a military life was when he was an attorney in the legal section of the war department.

Portes Gil was born at Ciudad Victoria, Tamaulipas, on October 30, 1891. He served as a judge in the state of Sonora and was elected a deupty four times.

In 1919, he worked in favor of the candidacy of General Obregon and was imprisoned several times and deported to the state of Chihuahua for his activities, serving a two months term in a penitentiary there.

He was elected governor of Tamaulipas in 1924 and held this post until named secretary of interior. He increased the number of schools in the state and established the first state supported school for indigent children.

In Tamaulipas he closed all the boggeries in vilages and the county. Saloons continued open in the cities and towns because sentiment there was against prohibition. He also stopped the open operation of saloons and gambling houses.

He loves baseball, which h learned on the Texas border, and does everything he can officially to encourage baseball, football, tennis and other sports.

CONGRESSMAN SANDERS WILL BE PRINCIPAL SPEAKER AT COUNTY DEMOCRATIC RALLY

Congressman Morgan Saunders will be the principal speaker at the democratic rally Monday, October 1, at 7:30 p. m. in the district court room, it was announced Wednesday. The original date set was Tuesday, Oct. 2, but a conflict in dates made a change necessary.

Representative democrats from every section of the county are expected to be present. In addition to the principal speakers a number of addresses will be made by local people.

Discussing the democratic rally, C. H. DeLafosse, chairman Navarro county democratic executive committee stated.

"Morgan Sanders, congressman, will deliver an address to the democrats of Navarro county at the courthouse Monday night, October 1. Local speakers will also be heard. The issues of the campaign will be fully and fairly discussed and no one will be abused or slandered.

"An organization looking to the getting of the voters to the polls will be perfected and the campaign carried to every voting precinct in the county. Additional details of the meeting will be presented later.

"Mr. Sanders is an able speaker and those who have heard him are unanimous in the verdict that he is interesting and forceful in his presentations of the issues."

Nine Corsicana Students Pledged State University

AUSTIN, Sept. 27.—(Spl.)—After a hectic four days of rushing activities, Greek letter fraternities and sororities at the University of Texas secured an unusually desirable list of pledges from among the ranks of freshmen and transfers, according to all accounts of the fraternal organizations.

A complete list of the sorority pledges was secured shortly after the pledge parties with which each sorority celebrated the end of the rushing season late last week, but, due to the fact that there is no definite rushing season for the fraternities and that pledging continues throughout the year, no complete list of their pledges could be secured.

KING OF KINGS COMING MONDAY

JACQUELINE LOGAN AND H. B. WARNER IN "THE KING OF KINGS"—PATHE

Noted figures of the epic school of pictures found new opportunities in the Cecil B. De Mille Biblical film, "The King of Kings," which will be on view at the Ideal and Palace theatres next week. The picture will be shown at the Ideal Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, and at the Palace on Monday and Tuesday. This is done to accommodate the large crowds that are expected to see the film which depicts the life of Christ.

The curiosity of picture fans is said to be keen over the new portrayals of these veterans, from Ernest Torrence, who made his big success as "Scout Bill Jackson" in "The Covered Wagon," to George Siegmann, who was the mulatto governor of "The Birth of a Nation," and Robert Edeson, the former scoundrelly contractor in "The Ten Commandments."

Mr. Torrence as Peter.

In the new De Mille work, Mr. Torrence appears in the role of Peter, the chief disciple of Jesus and founder of the Church of Rome. Seigmann has the role of Barabbas, the robber. The erstwhile wicked Edeson from the Great Law of Moses picture is transformed into the Matthew who wrote the first Gospel.

William Boyd, who achieved great success in the leading role of "The Volga Boatman," finds a brief but glorious opportunity in "The King of Kings" as Simon of Cyrene, the bearer of the Cross. Theodore Kosloff, another interesting character in "The Volga Boatman" comes into the new picture as the servant of the High Priest, whose ear Peter cut off. Sam DeGrasse, whose courtly villiany helped grace certain scenes of "The Black Pirate," was cast for the role of the Pharisee in "The King of Kings."

EARLIEST SNOW ON RECORD FALLS OVER CHICAGO TUESDAY

NEW YORK, Sept. 26. (AP)—Wild geese were going south today, their distant honks heralding the approach of winter, the first breath of which chilled the northern part of the United States yesterday from the Rocky Mountains east to the sea.

Snow fell in some parts of the country, in the Great Lakes region, the Berkshires and the Aleghenies with frost in many other sections and temperatures down to freezing and near freezing.

Snow which fell for five minutes at Chicago was the earliest fall on record, the first previous recorded date being Oct. 6 in 1906 and 1925.

The temperature was down to 46 degrees in New York with frost painting fields in the suburbs. The thermometer mark was 18 degrees below the average for the day but set no record, as the temperature was down to 41 degrees on that date in 1887.

The lowest reading in the country was at Williston, N. D., where the temperature was 18 degrees above zero. At Ironwood, Mich., the snowfall was so heavy the branches of many trees were broken.

Light falls of snow were recorded at Pittsfield, Mass., and Hazleton, Pa., while Hinsdale, Mass., reported it cold enough to freeze water in pails.

J. D. Norwood of Retreat spent Wednesday afternoon in the city attending to business.

REPAIRING STEPS.

Workmen were busy Wednesday morning repairing the iron steps entering the sheriff's office on the north side of the Navarro county courthouse. The steps had drawn loose from the fastenings on the courthouse wall.

JUDGE DECLARES UPTON ELECTION BALLOT ILLEGAL

NOMINEE FOR SHERIFF MUST MAKE RACE AGAIN IF ELECTED

RANKIN, Sept. 27.—(AP)—The race for sheriff of Upton county will be given to anyone who wishes to run. Judge C. R. Sutton ruled yesterday that the substitution of the word "party" for the word "primary" in the pledge as printed on the ballot invalidated the election and left the county without a nominee for the office.

The ballots carried the following pledge: "I am a Democrat and agree to support the nominee of this party." The pledge as prescribed by law reads: "I am a Democrat and agree to support the nominee of this primary."

J. O. Barfield, who had been declared elected must now make the race against whoever chooses to run, if he wants the office. W. C. Fowler, who ran against him in the first primary, sued the county committee to force a run-off primary. Judge Sutton, in deciding the suit made no reference to the question of a run-off, but declared that Barfield's nomination had been illegal.

Statement to Our People

In view of the fact that one John Roach Straton is to speak here tomorrow, we feel that the statement issued by Judge R. L. Stennis of Dallas, should be given to the electorate of this county. Accordingly the statement is presented below that our people may know something of this "eminent (?) divine," who seems to be always eager and willing to slander his fellowmen:

Judge Stennis' statement follows:

In his political tirade at a political meeting at the Fair Grounds in Dallas on Sunday, Sept. 23, Dr. John Roach Straton is reported to have said of Alfred E. Smith, Democratic nominee for President, that he is the "nominee of the worst forces of hell and corruption in America, the pimp and the prostitute, the ward-heeler and the gambler, the tout and the saloon-keeper." These are hard words against the Democratic party, which nominated Governor Smith by more than a two-thirds majority on the first ballot at a national convention composed of men and women. This man, Straton, was honored by the thousands of Christian citizens who applauded this brutal indictment against the men and women of the Democratic party. He was introduced as an "eminent divine" by Dr. C. C. Selecman, president of the Southern Methodist University. The word "divine" means Godlike or partaking of the nature of God.

In this speech on this holy Sabbath, Dr. Straton is reported as further saying that "every pimp and prostitute and gambler and bootlegger in America is supporting Governor Smith." I am not acquainted with any pimp, or prostitute, or gambler, or bootlegger and I have no personal knowledge as to whether any such character is supporting Governor Smith and I have no way of verifying this statement except through Dr. Straton. On first impulse I would assume that he would not make a statement of this kind unless he had knowledge of the intentions of these characters; but, on second thought, I am forced to doubt that he has personal knowledge as to all such characters. He is pastor of a large congregation, composed of negroes and whites, and in New York City and other great cities he has doubtless come in contact with thousands of these vile characters. I can not believe he knows how every one of these characters will vote. Furthermore, I am reminded of how this same Dr. Straton, while pastor of the First Baptist Church of Norfolk, Va., talked about these characters and the officers at Norfolk. He said worse things there, from the pulpit and by printed matter circulated by him, about honorable Democratic officers than he is saying about Governor Smith, and, when called before the grand jury at Norfolk and put under oath, he swore that he knew nothing about the infamous charges he had been making. When I consider his conduct in Norfolk, and the vile and cowardly attacks which he makes upon the women as well as the men, who nominated Governor Smith, I become more and more inclined to doubt his statements. Furthermore, why should a bootlegger want anything better than he has now and has had for nearly eight years under Republican rule? If Governor Smith contemplated recommending any change of the prohibition laws, it is but natural that the bootlegger would oppose him. Certainly the bootlegger would oppose anyone who promises to make an honest effort to enforce these laws.

There is no pimp, prostitute, gambler or bootlegger who is more odious than Daugherty, who sat in the Cabinet of both Harding and Coolidge, side by side with Mr. Hoover. He has been denounced all over the country. I do not recall that anyone has ever questioned this charge. Daugherty was honored by Coolidge and Hoover and other Republican leaders long after his guilt was exposed to the world. There is nothing in the public life or private life of Governor Smith that would justify the criminal element in forsaking leaders like Daugherty and Fall and their gang for Governor Smith or any other nominee of the Democratic party.

Dr. Straton is further reported as saying, "Although they have tried, they can not buy me." He does not say who tried to buy him. He does not indicate that he was offended by the offer to buy him. Perhaps he wants a pardon or some other favor for some other friend. The trouble in Norfolk started over his failure to get a bootlegger pardoned. He appealed to Gov. Westmoreland Davis for a pardon and the Governor referred him to the Prosecuting Attorney at Norfolk and Dr. Straton approached the prosecuting officer and requested his recommendation of Dr. Straton's client. The prosecutor said: "No, Dr. Straton, this man is a convicted bootlegger and I will not recommend his pardon." Thereupon Dr. Straton made his slanderous charges against that officer and other officers of Norfolk which later confessed that he had no information to support his charges. He later left Norfolk and no doubt he is happier with his mixed congregation of negroes and whites where he can play political leader, ward heeler and what not, as well as pastor. These, no doubt, are the ideals for which he is fighting in this campaign.

Those of us who know something of Dr. Straton's past are not surprised at anything he may say or do, but we owe it to the decent men and good women who compose the Democracy of America to resent the cowardly insults which he is heaping upon them in this campaign under the cloak of an "eminent divine."

NAVARRO COUNTY DEMOCRATS CALLED TO MEET OCTOBER 2ND TO PERFECT AN ORGANIZATION

Chas. H. DeLafosse, chairman of the Navarro county Democratic executive committee, has issued a call to the Democrats of Navarro county to meet in the district court room at the courthouse in Corsicana on Tuesday night, Oct. 2, at 7:30 p. m.

Speakers of national prominence will address the gathering and an organization looking to the getting of the voters out in the general election will be perfected.

The chairman is calling upon the Democratic chairman of each precinct in Navarro county to be present to the end that each precinct may be promptly identified in the movement.

Mr. DeLafosse states that there is no doubt but that Navarro county is overwhelmingly Democratic and that the regular ticket will easily win if the people go to the polls, and this is the purpose of the movement.

Card of Thanks.

We want to express our thanks to our friends, one and all, for everything that was done for us, all the comforting words, also the beautiful flowers that covered the last resting place of our little darling. It is our prayer that in time of need you will be blessed with friends as we were.

EXECUTION YOUNG BANDIT POSTPONED UNTIL OCTOBER 26

and I shall reprieve his sentence until October 26th, to give an opportunity to have his second motion for rehearing presented and acted upon by the court."

AUSTIN, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Governor Dan Moody said he would be delayed today in announcing his decision on the fate of J. R. (Bob) Silver, scheduled to be electrocuted shortly after midnight tonight at the state penitentiary at Huntsville.

The governor was on the program for the annual Texas Sheriffs' convention here, and he did not plan to announce his action until after he had addressed the officers. He decided the fate of Silver and two negroes slated to die with him yesterday, but said he would not announce his action until he had time to prepare a statement in explanation.

Silver was sentenced to death in the holdup and killing of Roscoe Wilson, Fort Worth theatre cashier, in January, 1927.

Mrs. Mary Louise Silver of Fort Worth, mother of the condemned man, appeared twice before the governor to plead for her son's life and Mrs. Ollie M. Wilson, mother of the slain cashier, plead with the chief executive and the pardons board against commutation of the sentence to life imprisonment.

Petitions were presented for and against commutation.

Silver has been given two reprieves. The last one was granted a week ago to allow the governor to study the lengthy report of the pardons board and review the statement of facts in the case.

During the past week the governor has examined thoroughly the facts in the Silver case as well as the evidence in the conviction of two negroes, Tom Ross from Nacogdoches county, and O. T. Alexander from Harris county. Ross was convicted of killing Dave Patterson while Patterson was carrying the payroll of a lumber camp and Alexander was sentenced to death in the slaying of his wife, Mattie.

Tom Estill, pitcher for the Wichita Falls Spudders the past season, arrived in Corsicana, Tuesday evening to spend several days here visiting friends and relatives.

CORSICANA WOMAN GIVES $100,000 TO BAYLOR UNIVERSITY

MRS. W. J. M'KIE SUBSCRIBES LARGE SUM IN PRESENT CAMPAIGN

At the conclusion of an address delivered here by Rev. I. E. Gates, pastor of the First Baptist church, San Antonio, Tuesday night, in which he outlined the sacrifices of some of the early Baylor workers, including the work of Dr. R. C. Burleson, Mrs. W. J. McKie, wife of the late Capt. W. J. McKie, millionaire oil man and lawyer, went to the speaker and informed him that she would give $100,000 to Baylor University in the present campaign. The speaker had depicted the death of Dr. R. C. Burleson, one of the bulwarks of Baylor, who died in the arms of his wife, looking toward Baylor with a prayer for the institution. When Mrs. McKie approached the speaker, she said that "all those things are true about Dr. Burleson. Did you know that my father, J. D. Stiteler, and Dr. Burleson were coteachers together in Baylor University at Independence?" Dr. Burleson baptized Mrs. McKie in the Brazos river and performed the marriage ceremony for Capt. and Mrs. McKie.

Mrs. McKie is a member of the old Baptist aristocracy of Texas.

She and her four children own the famous McKie ranch in the heart of the Corsicana-Powell oil field. Capt. McKie died last year. Mrs. McKie is an ex-student of Baylor University.

Dr. Gates Speaks.

Dr. Gates spoke to a fairly large crowd at the First Baptist church. Prior to Rev. Gates' address dealing with Baylor University, Rev. J. Howard Williams, pastor of the local church and one of the prominent leaders in the state-wide campaign and important committeeman, outlined some of the details incident to the campaign. He said that Baylor University at Waco and Dallas was in debt $1,700,000. He declared that Baylor had been slow to press her claims on the Texas Baptists and had never received adequate support. He said that the average college was getting about 40 per cent of the expenses from the student body but that last year Baylor received 89 per cent of the expenses from the student body, athletics and the sale of books. He referred to the arousing of Waco when it was threatened to move the main University to Dallas and that Waco has subscribed $420,000 for a new building and is to increase this to $1,000,000 in the next seven years if the Baptists and friends of Baylor will raise a similar amount. Dallas is to raise $1,000,000 and will begin the campaign in Dallas Feb. 1.

It was brought out that the Rockefeller Foundation had promised $300,000 when the institution

San Antonio Pledge Large.

The campaign closes early in December. His church, the First Baptist church of San Antonio, has pledged to give $400,000, one-fifth of the amount of the campaign for $2,000,000 for the state, and there are no big universities or schools there. San Antonio seriously considered the offering of $3,000,000 for the moving of Baylor there when it was talked of moving the institution from Waco to Dallas.

Continuing, Rev. Mr. Gates declared that Baylor should have the right of way at the present time and that the other Baptist schools of Texas ought to wait as they had already gotten more than their share of the aid from the denomination.

He declared that there were only 15,000 Baptists in San Antonio, a city of 200,000 and more people.

He declared that someone had to step into the breach and save the situation, referring to the Biblical story of Caleb and Joshua, declaring in favor of taking the Promised Land while the majority of the scouts sent out were adverse. He declared that the longer the Baptists waited to help, the more the difficulties would be. He appealed for the making of sacrifices for the institutions to show the sinners that religion meant something to Christians, and thereby challenge them. He appealed for the drawing of the lines for God, and referred to the story of the heroic scene in the Alamo when the men there decided to die together. He also dwelt at length on the thought of some that God could not get along without them in his work, and showed how they were wrong.

Eloquent Appeal.

In the summing up of his appeal for the great Baptist institution, Dr. Gates portrayed the scene at the death of Dr. R. C. Burleson, who gave his life and fortune toward the aiding of the institution he loved. As the doctors told the aged Baylor supporter that the end was at hand, he had his wife raise him so that he could look out of the window of his room, facing Baylor University, and as his life ebbed away, he prayed for the institution he had spent his life for and asked for others to be raised up to carry on for Baylor.

Soon after the conclusion of the meeting, Mrs. McKie went to the speaker and declared that everything about Dr. Burleson said was true and referred to some of the incidents of her life when she was near Dr. Burleson. She gave $100,000 toward the campaign.

Wednesday morning Dr. Gates left Corsicana for Ennis, where he will meet with a Baptist associational meeting and will go to Fort Worth Wednesday night. Thursday he is scheduled to go to Wichita Falls and will return to San Antonio for the Sunday services. Next week he will make a trip through South and East Texas, beginning at Houston early in the week and then will go to Jacksonville and other points in East Texas.

Speaking Wednesday morning, Rev. Mr. Gates said that H. L. Kokernot, one of the largest ranchers and wealthiest Baptists in Texas, a member of his church, has given $100,000 and the remainder of the Baptists of San Antonio would bring the total up to $400,000, one-fifth of the total amount asked of the Baptists outside of Waco and Dallas. He said that he hoped to have the campaign closed in San Antonio within three weeks.

Believed Ten Boys Held on Farm Near Chicago at Present

CHICAGO, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Belief that ten Chicago youngsters are held on a farm where ten-year-old Billy Ranieri was imprisoned two weeks for ransom, was expressed by State's attorneys today.

Samuel Hoffman, assistant state's attorney, disclosed today that the Ranieri boy, released a week ago, told of ten other children who were staying at the farm because "their parents were away on a vacation."

WHITE MAN FOUND SLAIN IN NICARAGUA PROBING IDENTITY

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Investigation is being made into the identity of the body of a white man with three bullet holes in the back of his head which recently was found at Waspuk on the Coco river.

It is believed the body may be that of George B. Marshall of New York, assistant manager of the Laluz Y Los Angeles gold mine, an American-owned property in Eastern Nicaragua, who was captured last April by followers of the rebel leader, Sandino, when the La Luz mine was destroyed.

LITTLE BOOK CONTAINING RECORD OF PROTECTION FOR BOOTLEGGERS IS PRODUCED

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 27. —(AP)—The grand jury investigating bootlegging and police graft has been shown a little book containing records of money alleged to have been paid police by liquor racketeers for protection.

The book was produced in Judge Lewis' court at a hearing at which Captain of Police Charles Cohen and other members of the police force appeared to answer charges of bribery and extortion. All were held under bail for trial.

Members of the grand jury recessed from their deliberations and attended the hearing in a body. They heard a confessed bootlegger, Morris Clearfield, testify he had paid weekly tribute to police. Clearfield identified his weekly payroll.

The payments averaged about $200 a week for approximately 10 weeks, Clearfield testified. During that time he turned out about 250 or 300 gallons of alcohol weekly without molestation from police. Subsequently he was closed up by federal agents.

Harry Goldstein, a tailor, testified that his home, where Clearfield rented a room, was used as the "pay-off" office where police received plain white envelopes. He said he or his wife handed the money out to police when they called.

Three captains, 10 detectives, seven sergeants and 14 patrolmen have been arrested thus far.

Speaking of his own campaign against lawlessness in Philadelphia, in conjunction with the grand jury investigation, Mayor Mackey blamed "near-beer" parlors as one source of liquor violations. He said the consumer did not like "near-beer" and that "near-beer salesmen had to shoot his product with higher alcoholic content to attract the money of the citizen-lawbreaker."

The mayor advocated an amendment to the Volstead act making it unlawful to sell beverages with an alcoholic content of any percent whatever.

MINISTER GIVES HIS EXPERIENCE IN HUN PRISON CAMP

REV. C. A. BEESLEY OF MINERAL WELLS MAIN SPEAKER BEFORE ROTARY

Rev. C. A. Beesley, Episcopal rector, of Mineral Wells, was the principal speaker Wednesday noon at the Corsicana Rotary Club, giving his experiences in German prison camps during the World war. Special musical numbers were given by Mesdames Harry Williams and Nat Pinkston and Loyd Kerr. A number of announcements were made.

M. H. DeWitt made a classification talk.

Paul B. Harper will leave for his new work with the First Baptist church at San Antonio Monday and Wednesday was his last day to attend the local club.

President McLendon and W. A. Mowlam spoke of the large number of Rotarians who attended the meeting at St. John's Episcopal church Tuesday honoring the twenty-fifth anniversary of Rotarian H. J. Ellis in the ministry.

An alarm clock has been installed by the Rotary Club which rings promptly at 1:30 o'clock and the club is automatically dismissed when the alarm is sounded.

H. D. Fillers, superintendent of the city schools, made an announcement about the Camp Fire Girls campaign in the near future and the attempt to be made by that organization for the securing of a camp site in the vicinity of Corsicana.

Franklin Seale, chairman of the attendance committee, spoke of the work being done in an effort to keep the attendance of the members up to the highest standard possible.

Rotary Day at Fair.

Secretary Jim B. Robinson read a letter from the Dallas Rotary Club calling the attention of the local Rotarians to Rotary Day at the Dallas Fair, Oct. 10. The local Rotarians were urged to attend and bring the Rotary-Anns. The visitors will meet at the noon hour with the Dallas club and later will go to the Fair. Reservations will be made for a show on that date, "Desert Song," and those wishing reservations must do so not later than Monday, Oct. 1. Pete Cunningham and Henry Walker were appointed as a committee to look after the reservations.

Miss Mary Ferguson, manager of the local Western Union office, and Rev. Wm. Garner of Terrell, were visitors.

The program committee today was composed of Jake Hudson and Ben Blackmon.

Mrs. Harry Williams and Loyd Kerr rendered solos and a duet with Mrs. Nat Pinkston at the piano.

Visiting Minister Speaks.

In the beginning of his remarks on his experiences in the German prison camps, Rev. Beesley stated that he was in the camps in various places for forty-four months. He was born in England and went to Canada, later to the United States. He enlisted with the Canadian Highlanders and went across in the first contingent in the war. He reviewed some of the engagements he was in and stated that he was an outpost when the Germans used the poisonous gas the first time, and was perhaps the first man to hee the approach of the gas. He dwelt at length on the fighting of the Second Battle of Ypres where he was captured. He said there were 900 soldiers cut off in one of the salients and surrounded. When they surrendered, 710 of the 900 were dead. The seige lasted four days and three nights and the troops were without food or water.

He described a mutiny of prisoners early in 1918 when the 28 prisoners with whom he was working felling trees quit work because of a rain, but due to a quarrel between the officers in charge, the one in charge of the bunch did not report them and they were not courtmartialed. He also spoke of a massacre of prisoners in which 15 were killed and a number wounded when the German officers said that new troops got signals mixed or something and fired into the crowd. The speaker said that many of the prisoners went mad and that diseases were prevalent, especially where the Russians had been held.

The program committee in charge for next Wednesday will be Pete Cunningham, S. L. Dublin and Henry Walker.

Few fairs, if any outside of the State Fair in America, have ever booked this sensational game due to the high cost and scarcity of players. The Bowens Auto Polo Games company will come direct from the Kansas State Fair. This state fair attraction will be played at popular prices of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children.

Each night from 8:00 until 9:00 p. m. a square dance will be given. From 9:00 until 2:30 p. m. a regular modern dance. A large dance floor has been built and a good jazz dance orchestra will furnish music. These dances will have chaperones each night.

TWELVE MILLION DOLLARS ASKED OF RED CROSS FOR REHABILITION FLORIDA

WEST PALM BEACH, Fla., Sept. 26.—(AP)—While the ashes of funeral pyres still smouldered in parts of the Florida hurricane swept area today, an appeal had gone to the national headquarters of the American Red Cross at Washington for a fund of $12,000,000 to be subscribed by the American people for permanently rehabilitating the devastated section.

Funeral fires cast a ghostly aspect over sections of the everglades in the Okeechobee section last night as workers cremated bodies washed up by the flood which followed the storm more than a week ago. Cremation was resorted to in an effort to improve sanitary conditions. In the Belle Glade section yesterday 165 bodies were burned, it was reported here.

The appeal to the National Red Cross was made by the Palm Beach county chapter in a formal report of the hurricane's toll, which placed the number of dead in Southeastern Florida in excess of 2,300 and the number of refugees at 12,200, who lost their all in the blow and subsequent flood of Lake Okeechobee.

"A complete tragedy," was the way the situation was described by A. A. D. Rahn, chairman of a survey committee for the Imperial Council of Masons, Mr. Rahn has recommended that funds be furnished by the organization for the relief work.

RAIL BUILDER OF SOUTHWEST DIED IN EAST WEDNESDAY

ARTHUR E. STILLWELL FOLLOWED "HUNCHES" IN LIFE'S WORK

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 27. —(AP)—The death in New York yesterday of Arthur E. Stilwell, railroad builder of the Southwest, ended the career of a promoter whose various projects, as he told of them in his memoirs published recently, were inspired by "hunches."

Mr. Stilwell, who was 68 years old, died of apoplexy.

The Kansas City, Pittsburgh and Gulf railroad, now the Kansas City Southern, came from one of Mr. Stilwell's "hunches," he said. He foresaw the development of a great territory along the line of a railroad between Kansas City and the Gulf of Mexico.

Mr. Stilwell was the founder of Port Arthur, Texas, and the builder of the Port Arthur ship canal. Port Arthur was designed as a landlocked harbor terminal for his railroad and his decision to locate the terminus there was the result of another of his "hunches," he declared.

He had at first planned to locate the terminal at Galveston, but was "warned" that the city would be devastated by a storm. A few months after the Port Arthur terminal was completed, a hurricane and tidal wave devastated Galveston.

When the Kansas City Pittsburg and Gulf went into receivership in 1900, Mr. Stilwell started plans at once for what has become the Kansas City, Mexico and Orient, which was to go to the Pacific Coast from Kansas City and was to pass through a part of Mexico. Revolutions in Mexico finally forced the Orient into a receivership, but the line except for a gap between Alpine, Texas, and the Rio Grande, has been completed from Wichita, Kas., to Topolobampa, Mexico, its port terminus.

Mr. Stilwell is survived by the widow, Mrs. Jennie Wood Stilwell.

Did You Know

That there is 900,000 Dairy Cows over 2 years old in the state of Texas?

That Texas ranks 6th in Dairying, also in Production?

That the average consumption of milk per person in Texas is One-Half Pint?

That the average consumption of milk per person in the New England States is 1 1-2 pints?

That there is only 52 counties in the State of Texas that have health officers to inspect milk?

That you get 18 per cent more milk from a cow freshening in the Fall than from one freshening in the Spring? (Think this over).

That the average scrub cow only produces 125 pounds of butterfat per year?

That by crossing the scrub cow with a purebred sire you can increase butterfat production 100 pounds?

That this cross bred cow should be good for 6 years production at 100 pounds increase per year she would produce 600 pounds more butterfat than the scrub cow; this extra butterfat at 40 cents per pound would be worth $240.00 or the difference in the real value of the two cows?

That the feed cost per gallon of milk in Texas varies from 13 cents to 42 cents?

That a cow fed on a balanced ration will produce you more milk for less money? (Come in we will prove this.)

That we are making more and more cow feed each day?

GRADUATE OF STATE HOME IS MADE PINK BOLL WORM EXPERT

CLAUD MADER GOES WITH FEDERAL HORTICULTURAL BOARD

STEPHENVILLE, Sept. 27.—(Spl)—Claud Mader, who was graduated with the class of 1926 at the State Home at Corsicana, and who has attended John Tarleton Agricultural College since that time, has been appointed by the United States government as inspector for the pink boll worm control, under the Federal horticulture board, authorized by the last session of congress. Claud entered John Tarleton Agricultural College in September 1926 as a junior in the department of agriculture, taking a course in agricultural education. He has been an excellent student in his studies in Tarleton, and as a result, his record in that institution is above an average. It was impossible for him to attend the college during the last half of the session of 1927-1928; but, in order to make this time back, Mader was back in school during the summer session. At the close of the summer session this year, Claud accepted the appointment with the government and was assigned to duty in the El Paso office where he will begin his duties October 1, this year. Mader is a deserving young man, and his friends feel sure that he will be successful in what ever work he enters upon.

Forest Fire Out of Control in Idaho

WALLACE, Idaho, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Forest fires driven before a high wind and described as among the worst in this section in years, menaced the area around Kellogg and Wallace today.

The blaze, outside Kellogg, was out of control and today had covered more than 600 acres. Rangers said the town would be in danger if the wind shifted.

Workers from the Bunker Hill and Sullivan mines, on whose land the fire was burning, were sent to fight the blaze. Considerable mining property was in the fire's path.

AN APPEAL FOR FUNDS

A great number of people in every community in Texas are stired over the possibility of prohibition being destroyed by the election of Al Smith, governor of New York, as President of the United States.

Everywhere there is a burning desire for something to be done and the stress of an emergency is now at hand. It requires immedate action, if efforts of prevention are offered, and to make this effective, necessary funds must be sent in without delay.

The committee to handle this proposition is now ready to act, and can do so as soon as funds are received to meet the expenditures that will have to be incured to put this over.

Friends of prohibition all over the county, men and women are requested to send their contributions to Headquarters L. E. McCormick, County Chairman, 122 West Collin street. Phone No. 556, or if mailed to L. E. McCormick, Corsicana, Box 587.

CORSICANA WILL SEND DELEGATION TO FT. WORTH MEETING

CHAMBER COMMERCE MAKING EFFORT BRING NEW HIGHWAY THRU COUNTY

Road questions and matters pertaining to the roads in this vicinity consumed the majority of the time of the bi-monthly meeting of the directors of the Corsicana Chamber of Commerce Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock. A delegation will go to Fort Worth Wednesday morning to meet with interested citizens of Corsicana, Palestine, Waxahachie and Fort Worth in reference to the proposed attempt to have a state highway designated, connecting these towns and connecting with the roads to West Texas via Fort Worth. The directors endorsed the proposed acquiring of a permanent Camp Fire site to be used by various organizations.

Among those present at the meeting were C. L. Jester, president, who presided; W. Roy Christian, J. O. Burke, J. L. Halbert, R. J. Jackson, J. M. Dyer, Sr., W. P. McCammon, W. W. McClendon, county engineer; T. J. Hickey, Lowry Martin and John S. Murchison.

In the discussion with reference to the proposed highway from Palestine through Corsicana via Wildcat Ferry and thence to Waxahachie and Fort Worth, it was brought our that the state highway department was considering this proposed route and engineers would survey the route and report back to the state department. A meeting will be held in Fort Worth Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock of cities interested in the proposed highway and the following delegation is scheduled to leave Corsicana Wednesday morning at 9 o'clock for Fort Worth:

J. O. Burke, R. J. Jackson, C. L. Jester, Guy M. Gibson, Lee Hamilton, E. D. McCarver, John S. Murchison, W. W. McClendon, Lowry Martin and probably others.

It was brought out in the discussion that Beaumont and Palestine were also unusually interested in the proposed road as it would give an outlet for Southeast Texas to Central and West Texas.

W. W. McClendon dealt at length with the engineering work which has been done and is proposed to be done on Highway No. 75 in Navarro county. It was brought out that it is likely that the work on other state highways within the county would not be taken up until the state and federal highway No. 75 is under construction.

Bids have been ordered advertised for by the commissioners court on the Corsicana-Corbet lateral road. It was also brought out that the plans, etc., on the Corsicana-Elmhouse lateral road were ready but action on this road is being held up temporarily.

J. L. Halbert, chairman of the agricultural committee, stated that two meetings would be held at the Chamber of Commerce Saturday at 10 o'clock in the morning and at 2 o'clock in the afternoon of interested landowners at which time a number of prominent authorities on soil conservation, terracing and other allied subjects would speak. He is especially interested in having a large crowd present for these meetings.

The directors endorsed the proposed securing of a Camp Fire girls camp site near Corsicana. It was brought out that if a camp site was secured, it would be available for the Camp Fire Girls, Boy Scouts, Y. M. C. A., Salvation Army and other organizations which might have occasion to use a camp during the summers.

A questionnaire from the United States Chamber of Commerce was given the agricultural committee headed by J. L. Halbert and a report will likely be made at the next meeting of the directors. The central headquarters wish to secure a report on certain phases of proposed agricultural legislation to be presented the next congress.

Corsicana Friends Attend Funeral of Mrs. S. L. Noble

The following friends of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Noble attended the funeral services of Mr. Noble's mother, Mrs. S. L. Noble which were held Sunday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in Athens: Mr. LeGrande Woods, Mr. Clyde Willingham, Mr. W. P. Brown, Mr. C. C. Weatherford and Mr. and Mrs. J. D. McBee and two daughters.

Mrs. Noble passed to her heavenly reward Saturday at 12:45 p. m. after a lingering illness. She was greatly beloved for her lovely, Christian character and her many deeds of kindness by all who knew her, and especially by the people of Athens with whom she had been associated for many years. The love and esteem in which she and her family of noble sons and fine daughters was shown by the large attendance of friends, in and out of Athens and by the lovely tribute of flowers that made a beautiful canopy over her last resting place.

Mr. and Mrs. Noble have returned to their home, after two weeks of anxiety at her bedside. Their host of friends extend heartfelt sympathy to them at this time of sorrow.

COPY OF FAMOUS PAINTING GIVEN TO HIGH SCHOOL

By KERR B. COWAN

Mrs. Murphy Williams, who has recently returned from an extensive tour of Europe, has donated to the Corsicana high school a most exquisite copy of Millet's famous painting, "The Gleaners." Mrs. Williams purchased this beautiful picture at the Louvre in Paris, France. The picture is an exact reproduction in not only the figures but also the colors of the original painting, which now hangs in the Louvre.

The school is very fortunate in receiving such a beautiful and exact copy of Millet's masterpiece and appreciates it. The board of education, the faculty and the students are very grateful to Mrs. Williams for her kindness and thoughtfulness in presenting this lovely picture to the high school.

FROST COMMUNITY TO OPEN FAIR WITH GIGANTIC PARADE

COMMUNITY FAIR TO BE HELD IN FROST OCTOBER 4TH, 5TH AND 6TH

FROST, Sept. 25.—(Spl.)—Superintendent W. V. Harrison, of Frost, who is in charge of arrangements for a community parade to be staged in Frost Thursday, October 4th, the opening day of the Community Fair to be held here October 4th, 5th and 6th, was asked the question, "Why have a parade in connection with the fair?"

His prompt and enthusiastic reply was, "Why have a parade? There are a thousand reasons. Boys and girls of every age love a procession. The very essence of the community parade is that it appeals to the community spirit, as differentiated from the class spirit. A parade can make vivid the life of the community, past and present, through the imagination, through objective presentation, through dramatization of its ideals and its experience, through the spirit of play.

Mr. Harrison went on to explain that the essential idea underlying every form of community drama is the expression of the life and ideals of the community.

"How, better, can it be done than through a pageant and parade," he asked.

He was very emphatic in his declaration that the one thing needful in the Frost community is that the industry and patriotism of the community be fused by imagination, and that to stimulate this imagination, this folk consciousness there is no better instrumentality than a big community parade.

Parades satisfy the natural craving to express oneself in play. On October 4th we expect to "make alive" past events of local importance; the whole Frost community will work and play together on that day.

Mr. Harrison is a very enthusiastic advocate of the value of pageantry and parades in community building. He close his remarks by saying:

"Do you know, old Frost needs to know more about how to play in a community way; she needs to "be a child again," in wholesome, healthful out-of-door play. On October 4th, we are going to parade our babies, pets, ponies, pumpkins, Indians, cowboys, pioneers, old soldiers, cows, horses, hogs— everything and everybody."

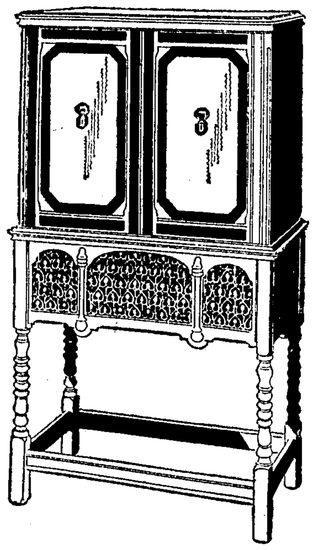

TEAGUE MAN IS KILLED IN FALL OFF HIGH BRIDGE

W. S. Baldree, aged 44 years, of Teague, was instantly killed about noon when he fell from the overhead bridge over the T. & B. V. R. R. tracks, about two miles north of Emhouse. The body was brought to Corsicana and prepared for burial. It is expected that the body will be taken to Teague either late Tuesday or early Wednesday, where interment will probably be made, but at press hour no definite funeral arrangements had been perfected.

Mr. Baldree was with a bridge gang at work on a nearby bridge at the time of the accident.

The neck and right arm were broken by the fall. Details with reference to the fall were not available in Corsicana Tuesday afternoon.

Surviving are his wife, one son, one daughter and numerous other relatives at Teague.

ONE MAN WHO WENT LIMIT HAS CHANGED WORLD'S THOUGHT

An Appraisal of Paul, The Tarsus Jew Who Became the Leader of Christian Cosmopolitanism —Religion's Great Change.

By WILLIAM T. ELLIS

"Once upon a time there was a man"—that is the oldest formula for history as well as for fiction. When a great man appears changes are sure to follow. A few names in each century stand out as the embodiment of the life of that time. This is nature's tribute to personality. Systems have no such power. What could have seemed more firmly established and dominant than the Russian and German monarchies and aristocracies fifteen years ago? Yet they crumbled up like pasteboard when subjected to strain. Power resides not in institutions, but in individuals—a lesson which neither the politicians nor the ecclesiastics seem able to learn.

Frankly facing the facts, we find that the Christian church during the past nineteen centuries has organized itself into certain great bodies, such as the Eastern Orthodox, or Greek, church; the western Roman Catholic church; the Nestorian church; the Gregorian church; the Coptic church, and, latterly, the Protestant churches. Yet one single man has been more powerful in the lives of Christians than any or all of these. That man is the Jew, Saul of Tarsus, who became Paul the Apostle of Jesus Christ, and His greatest interpreter.

This simple fact is big with meaning. It is worth the ordinary person's thinking about. Why did one unofficial Jew, when converted to a new religion in an obscure province of the Roman Empire, become a more powerful figure in history than Cyrus or Alexander or Julius Caesar or Ghengis Khan or Charlemagne or Napoleon? Paul had no army. He held no civil office. No king or noble was his patron. He was not rich: during his most fruitful years he worked at his trade as a tent-maker. He was often in prison, and finally died by the executioner's sword. Whence then comes the persisting power of this man down the centuries?

"The Thinking Bayonet"

As the old saying has it, it is "the thinking bayonet" that wins all wars. Paul's power was the power of ideals and of spirit. He has laid hold of the minds and imaginations of men in all lands because of his great brain and his great heart. He put into vivid words truths for all times. His phrases and figures of speech are more commonly quoted than those of Shakespeare.

Paul differs from other great thinkers in that there was a moral and spiritual purpose in every word he uttered. He might have talked politics or philosophy or travel—for he was abundantly qualified to do so—but, instead, he talked the marvel and the mystery of the new life that is offered to men in Christ Jesus. His brain was stamped deep with the name and character of his Master. To him to live was Christ. No lover was ever so wrapped up in his beloved as was Paul in Jesus. Wherever he was, whatever he did his one absorbing passion and purpose was the Saviour. He resolved to know nothing else among men than the Crucified, the Good News of Whom was his life message. All the other considerations that commonly move men he brushed aside: Christ, and Christ only, was the center and circumference of his life.

Did this big idea set Paul apart from his fellows? On the contrary; it linked him to them. Most "leaders" of men, in all spheres, ignore the profound truth which Paul built upon—and it is the bed-rock of democracy and religion—namely, that the lowliest person had a capacity for the loftiest truth. Everybody can understand right and justice and freedom; that is why the Orient is still aflame today with the Allied War Aims. What is more, every man and woman has a capacity for thoughts about God. Philosophers may or may not explain it, but the little child has the clearest confidence in God. It is the human heart's homesickness for the heavenly that makes people yearn to know God, and to be in unity with him. The highest use of human intelligence is to apprehend the Divine. So Paul was appealing to the noblest as well as the most universal and permanent element in man when he presented fresh, clear thoughts about the Father-God who has revealed himself in Christ.

A Highbrow's Religion

This trained thinker from the schools of Tarsus and Jerusalem got his new faith by way of a personal experience. It did not come to him as a philosophical presentation or as a result of academic discussion. Instead, it knocked him down at midday, on the Damascus road, as an individual conversion. Paul was made a Christian by a personal encounter with Christ. It was by his emotions, and not by his highly developed brain, that he became a disciple.

Of course, once his heart was set right, Paul's brain began to penetrate and organize and present the significance of Christ and His Gospel. It was in the colossal crucible of the Pauline intellect that the tremendous truths of the revelation of God in Jesus-Christ were fused into the Christian teaching which has made over the world. For Paul was one who dared to think for himself, and to think things through. His Christian life began with a long retreat into the desert for meditation. He was the first of that long line of Christian scholars who have made the church and the world

The Audacity of a Convert

No timid, narrow, conventional person was Paul. His new religion evoked all the force of his personality, and unleashed new powers which even he himself had enver suspected. If it was true, it was true to the limit; and this convert had the audacity to go all the way with the truth that had been given him. For freedom had he been set free.

So he saw, as many others did not, that this Gospel could not be kept within Judean bounds. It had to be carried to the limits of the world, at whatever cost of personal labor and suffering. In the truest sense, Paul was an ambitious man. Also he was a practical man, and no cloistered dreamer. Whatever he saw as true, he dared to attempt as practicable. His vision, plus his purpose, made him Christianity's greatest missionary; and still today the pioneering leaders of Christian thought.

A changed world was envisaged by this daring innovater. He was no "stand-patter," no defender of existing ills and abuses. Paul saw that the Gospel meant changed lives, or else it meant nothing. He flung into the face of an entrenched paganism, with all its materialism and lust and cruelty and selfishness, the truth of a New Life, which makes men and society different.

When the Clash Comes.

Like Paul, many modern missionaries are opposed by those whose practices of human exploitation are menaced by the Gospel. Out in Winona Lake, a few weeks ago, I heard that great-souled missionary, Bishop Fred J. Fisher, of India, tell of conditions foisted upon the land he loves by "Christian" capitalism. There are jute mills below Calcutta, he said, which for the last six months of 1927 paid a dividend of one hundred and fifty per cent, and for the first half of the present year paid two rundred per cent, while the Indian operatives are paid but forty-five cents a day for the labor of a family of five, on a fourteen-hour shift, with two fifteen-minute meal periods a day.

Such a man as Paul was bound to encounter opposition. Every teacher of the applied Gospel does. Imperialism and exploitation in Paul's day were quite as real and alert forces as they are today. So Paul was mobbed and stoned and beaten and jailed, and finally beheaded, by the defenders of the Established Order.

But Paul took no time out to worry about that, and he kept right on preaching. His own fate was the least of his worries: so long as Christ was preached, nothing else mattered. How can life hurt a man like that? He is beyond the reach of all its slings and darts. So his message spread and his work grew; and still today they are spreading and growing everywhere. Untold millions know and love the master better because Paul was what he was.

REV. J. H. WILLIAMS DECLINES SERVE AS DISTRICT CHAIRMAN

The Rev. J. Howard Williams, pastor of the First Baptist church, in letter to Alvin Moody, state chairman anti-Smith campaign, made public Tuesday, declined to serve as chairman in the sixth senatorial district in the campaign against Smith, as announced recently.

The Rev. Mr. Williams pointed out in the letter that although he would vote for Hoover he doubted the wisdom of a minister "assuming such a prominent part as would be expected of him in the office." Additional responsibilities were also given by Mr. Williams as another cause for not serving.

STRATON TO SPEAK FRIDAY NIGHT AT MUNICIPAL BALL PARK IN OPPOSITION SMITH

Selection of the Municipal ball park as the site for the address of Dr. John Roach Straton, pastor of the Calvary Baptist church of New York City, who will appear in Corsicana, Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the interest of Herbert Hoover for president, under the auspices of the Anti-Saloon league, was announced by the Navarro county anti-Smith organization Wednesday.

The local organization is sponsoring the local appearance of the Baptist divine, who was formerly a member of the faculty of Baylor university. He was brought to Texas by the Anti-Saloon organization. Straton has been following Governor Alfred E. Smith on his speaking tour, and has been a bitter opponent of the New York executive.

Plans for the speaking include the erection of a speaker's platform, the installation of lights and loud speakers. The ball park was designated because it gave the greatest seating capacity, and the greatest amount of parking space. The anti-Smith organization will make the meeting Friday evening a county-wide rally.

Names of the reception committee and other details of the program will be announced within a few days.

Karem Temple Band To Play in Wortham

Karem Temple Shrine Band and Patrol of Waco, will give a program in Wortham, Thursday, Sept. 27, at 7:30 p. m., according to announcement Tuesday.

The program will last for two hours and will be presented in front of the Tabernacle. The band numbers forty pieces and the patrol will appear in uniform.

A large number of Shriners from Corsicana and Navarro county are expected to go to Wortham for the event.

CHAMBER COMMERCE MAKING THOROUGH STUDY OF AIRPORTS

Seeking accurate information on what the cities and towns of Texas are doing with reference to the establishment of airports, the Corsicana chamber of commerce is making a rather thorough airport survey of the entire state.

The information obtained will be submitted to the chamber's aviation committee in order to give them a further basis for developing an airport program for Corsicana. The returns from various towns already received indicate that even the smaller towns are already taking steps to meet this newer development in transportation. Some of the West Texas towns who were far looking in their plans to encourage aviation, have received assurances within the past few days of the establishment of another air line from Dallas and Fort Worth westward.

It is apparent that the development of aviation has been more rapid than the average individual realizes. According to the present rate of progress, it would seem that the cities which overlook the possibilities of air routes in a few years will be as unfortunate as those communities of past decades which overlooked the advantages of obtaining locations on major highways or railroad routes.

A digest of the information received from the present survey will be made public within a short time.

Kerens and Bazette Couple Married in Kerens Saturday

KERENS, Sept. 27.—(Spl.)—Miss Jessie Smith of Bazette and Virgil Simmons of this city were married Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock, the wedding taking place at the Baptist parsonage, with Rev. W. A. Corkern, pastor, officiating.

The bride was reared at Bazette, 5 miles north of Kerens, her education being received in the public schools of this city of which she was a member of the 1927-28 graduating class. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, a prominent Navarro county family.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Willie Simmons. His education was also received in the Kerens schools, having graduated from that institution in 1928. Mr. Simmons was an outstanding athlete in the Kerens schools, and is a member of the Henry W. Grady Literary Society.

Following a wedding trip to points in East Texas and Western Louisiana, Mr. and Mrs. Simmons will make their home in Kerens until sometime in November when they will go to Olton, Texas, with the former's parents to make their future home. The parents of Mr. Simmons have large farm interests in West Texas, and the bridegraam will be associated with his father in agricultural work.

Corsicana Man Asks Bus Line Permit

AUSTIN, Sept. 25.—(AP)—The state railroad commission and Mark Marshall, motor bus division chief, held a hearing today on application of Pete O'Daniel, Corsicana filling station owner, for a permit to operate a motor bus line between Corsicana and Hillsboro.

MOODY SUPPORTING ENTIRE DEMOCRATIC TICKET IN ELECTION

AUSTIN, Sept. 26.—(AP)—Governor Dan Moody today reiterated his statement that he was supporting the entire democratic ticket and characterized a report from the east that he would support Herbert Hoover as untrue.

The governor sent the following telegram to the editor of the New York Herald Tribune.

"Texas paper in a Washington special carries an item stating 'Much interest was attracted in political circles here today by a news story in the New York Herald Tribune, republican, under Austin date line, that Governor Moody would support Herbert Hoover.'

"I have tried to locate your Austin correspondent but my efforts have been in vain. The statement that I will support Herbert Hoover is not true and I ask that you correct it.

"The statement attributed to your paper that while I had declared at the recent democratic state convention that I would vote for the democratic electors that a change seemed to have come over me since that time is completely in error. I am supporting and I shall continue to support the entire democratic ticket."

Governor Moody said that he was sending a copy of the message to democratic national headquarters.

SELLING PRESSURE IN EVIDENCE WHEN MARKET IS OPENED

IRREGULARITIES BECAME MORE PRONOUNCED AS TRADING PROGRESSED

Total stock sales today 4,037,000 shares.

NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Selling pressure was still in evidence at the opening of today's stock market. Curtis and National Power & Light each dropped 2 points on the first sale and Fleischmann and International Nickel each yielded a point. Stanley Co. of American advanced a point and Chrysler, Hudson and U. S. Steel common opened fractionally higher.

Irregularities became more pronounced as trading progressed. Fears of a technical reaction, suggested by some of the large commission houses as an early possibility, inspired rather heavy profit-taking in some of the recent favorites.

Pool operations were again an important factor in the "bull" campaign. International Match preferred was bid up 3 1-4 points and A. M. Byers, Canadian Pacific, Gold Dust, Pathe, Victor Talking Machine and Radio sold 1 to 2 points higher. Buying of Radio probably was influenced by announcement the Corportion had made application to establish Radio stations in several inland cities in order to enter into direct competition with the telegraph companies.

Early selling pressure was most effective against such issues as General Electric, Union Carbide and Wright Aeronautical, which dropped 2 1-4 to 3 1-4 points, and Mullins Corporation, Sears Roebuck and Lambert which yielded a point or more.

Foreign Exchanges opened steady.

Closing was irregular. Large offerings of General Motors, Montgomery Ward, Greene Cananea Copper and Radio were thrown into the market in the final hour. Radio toppled from 211 7-8 to below 205. Total sales approximated 3,600,000 shares.

Grain and Provisions

CHICAGO, Sept 27.—(AP)—Fresh upturns in the price of wheat today hoisted May delivery to the highest level yet for the crop. The rise was attributed largely to higher Liverpool quotations than due, and to cables of prospective grain shortage in Russia.

Opening 3-8c to 2c up, Chicago wheat later held near to initial figures. Corn started at 1-8c to 1 1-8c advance, but subsequently reacted a little. Oats were firm. Provisions tend to sag.

Wheat closed unsettled at the same as yesterday's finish to 1 1-2 cent higher, corn 3/8 to 7-8 @ 1c off. Outs unchanged to 5-8c up, and provisions varying from 2c decline to a rise of 62c.

New Orleans Cotton Advances.

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 27.—(AP)—Cotton prices advanced over $1 a bale in early trading today under a rather heavy demand stimulated by reports of colder and unsettled weather in portions of the belt.

The opening was firm at an advance of 7 points. Relatively steady Liverpool cables and early advices of lower temperatures and unsettled conditions in the cotton region brought out good trade buying and covering after the start which carried December and January contracts to 18.55, or 26 to 27 points net up. Towards the end of the first hour the undertone continued firm with prices at the highs.

There was another bulge when the weather map was issued confirming the early unfavorable weather reports. The buying that ensued carried December and January to 18.63 and March 18.62, or 34 to 35 points above yesterday's close. The official forecast for rain in most of the western belt added to the firmness.

Some profit-taking developed on the advances and there was some selling reported on the idea that the technical position of the market was weakened. Near mid-session prices eased 9 to 6 points from the top and many were somewhat quieter.

New York Cotton Higher.

NEW YORK, Sep. ....—(AP)The cotton market opened firm today at an advance of 18 to 21 points on a continuation of the recent buying movement, stimulated by apprehensions of rains in the south west.

Both trade and speculative interests were credited with buying on the advance, which soon carried the price of December contracts up to 19.10 and March to 19.00, the general list showing net advances of 20 to 30 points. At this level there was extensive realizing and possibly some selling for a reation, but nervousness over the progress of the crop remained in evidence, and the selling was absorbed on setbacks of 3 or 4 points. The market was steady at the end of the first hour.

The advance extended to 19.26 for December and 19.10 for March, making net advances of about 35 to 40 points and an advance of nearly 2 cents a pound from the recent low levels. Reports of wet weather and low temperatures in the South stimulated the demand, but buying was less active after the advance and there were rumors of rather freer offerings from the South. Prices at mid-day were steady within 4 or 5 points of the best.

Futures closed steady, 36 @ 43 points higher. Spot steady; midding 19.60.

IN REMEMBRANCE OF JIM W. HAWS.

Jim W. Haws was born in Missouri, Dec. 18, 1888, and passed away Aug. 30, 1928. He had been sick only six short days, with that dreadful disease, pneumonia.

Oh, how he suffered no one knows but the ones that stood over his bedside, trying to care for him during his illness. All was done that loving hands could do, but God saw fit to take him home out of his suffering, where there will be no more sad partings.

Jim came to Texas when only a small boy, where he has spent most of his life. He had been living in the Barry community for some time, where he was living at the time of his death. He was married to Miss Verna Moore of the Cottonwood community. To this family was born three children, two girls, Etheline and Pauline, and one son, Percy.

Jim was a fine friend, and was always ready to do every kind deed for you that he knew how. When only a young man, he was called to serve in the World War, where he was in real service for about nine months.

He leaves to mourn his loss his wife and children, and also an aged father and mother, and three sisters. He also had many relatives and friends. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Dietz of Frost, and Rev. Bell of Barry at the Dresden tabernacle, with interment in the Dresden cemetery.

A precious one from us has gone,
A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home
That never can be filled.

'Tis hard to break the tender cord,
When love has bound the heart,
'Tis hard, so hard, to speak the words,
"We must forever part."

Dear one, we must lay thee,
In a peaceful grave—embrace,
But thy memory will be cherished
Till we see thy smiling face.

A true friend.
FRANKIE WILLIAMS.

ROY THOMPSON IS SERIOUSLY INJURED AUTOMOBILE CRASH

A message was received by Mrs. John Thompson, who is in Sherman on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. S. Eubank, Thursday morning stating that her son, Roy Thompson, was seriously injured in an automobile accident early Thursday morning in El Paso. The message stated that Mr. Thompson was injured internally and that at the hospital where he was taken following the accident there was little hope expressed that he would survive his injuries.

Word of the injury to Mr. Thompson, who formerly resided in Corsicana and is well known here, came from Mrs. Woods of Sherman, who phoned the message to her daughter, Mrs. LeGrand Woods here at the request of Mrs. Thompson, who left for El Paso at once.
